And the Thanksgiving clothing you can select at 11 and start wearing at 12 is worth more than the suite and coats you have to ponder over at 11 and wonder about in price.

This clothing impresses you on first sight that you won't have to look at a second store. The minute you lay eyes on these suits and overcoats and hear their welcome modest prices, you know that you are in the right store and that the rest is but a matter of minutes.

Creswell-Bickett Nuptials

Solemnized Thursday Night

In a beautiful late fall nuptial event, Mildred Watt Bickett and Alfred Ward Creswell, both of Cedarville, O., were united in marriage Thursday evening at the First United Presbyterian church.

Dr. John W. Bickett, father of the bride and pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony, assisted by Dr. W. E. McChesney, president of Cedarville college, Cedarville, O., and Dr. E. F. Kimmel, pastor of Des Moines.

Over 50 relatives and friends were present for the vows, which were solemnized at 8:30 o'clock by candlelight.

Church Decorations
Providing a lovely setting for the nuptials, the church was decorated with a solid background of greenery. In striking contrast against this background were two tall white baskets, filled with white chrysanthemums, carnations and pompons, and two seven-branch candelabra bearing gleaming white tapers. A double spray of white carnations, accented by one large chrysanthemum, rested in front of the altar, where the bride party stood.

A piano prelude was played by James Taggart Watt of Greenfield, O., a cousin of the bride who presented strains from familiar wedding music. He also played the processional and recessional marches, using The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner and Wedding March from "A Mid-Night's Dream," by Mendelssohn.

Bride's Gown
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gown in blue, a wedding sash, fashioned on train along princess lines with full shoulders and finger tip sleeves. The gown, made by the bride's mother, was trimmed with Chantilly rose point lace at the neck and sleeves, and tiny satin buttons down the center front. She wore with it a sapphire pin, gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's imported Brussels lace veil, fell from a lace cap to shoulder length over her face and into a long train at the back. A wreath of orange blossoms over the crown of her head adorned the cap.

She carried a handkerchief of Brussels lace and a shower bouquet of Easter lilies, white roses and valley lilies, tied with white satin ribbons. Florentine Gowns
Her sister, Miss Laura Caroline Bickett of Newton, who served as first bridesmaid, wore a peach-colored, embroidered in peach, which was made by hand in Florence, Italy. With it she wore a shoulder tip blue veil, held in place by a coronet of silver leaves, blue mitts, and a double strand of coral from Italy, a gift of the bride.

Silver slippers and a "colonial" bouquet of pink carnations, roses and blue sweet peas completed her costume. Miss Isabella Fullerton Bickett of Chicago, Ill., who also served her sister as bridesmaid, wore a peach-colored Florentine net dress embroidered in blue, and carried a Colonial "bonquet," similar to that of the other attendant. Her peach-colored veil was also held in place with a coronet of silver leaves, the silver note being repeated in her slippers. Mitts, matching the color of her dress, and a tiny cascade from Naples, Italy, a gift of the bride, were also part of her ensemble.

Best Man, Ushers
The bridegroom, the best man, James Marshall of Chicago, Ill., and the two ushers, John Paul Wright of Greenfield, O., and James Bickett of Xenia, O., wore tuxedos with white boutonnieres. The latter two are cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Bickett, mother of the bride, was charming in a deep blue velvet gown, trimmed with gold ornaments. She wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias, and a gold ornament in her hair.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John Irwin of Jamestown, O., was beautifully gowned in black velvet, with which she wore a close-fitting black "sweat" evening hat, trimmed with a tiny nose veil. Her flowers were also a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Shoulder corsages were worn by the out-of-town women guests and white boutonnieres were worn by the men guests from away.

Reception
A reception arranged by the Fortnightly and the Kate Hill Circles of the church, was held in the church immediately following the ceremony. Fair hostesses were Mrs. J. C. Hill, Mrs. Roy Dennison, and Blanche Christensen.

Mrs. Tim J. Campbell and Mrs. W. D. Eyerly presided at the refreshment table, which was resplendent in silver and crystal.

A huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pompons tapered the table and three tall white tapers in crystal candelabra were at either side of the centerpiece.

Featured was the three-tiered wedding cake, baked by the bride's aunt, Miss Nelle Watt of Greenfield, O., and cut by the bride during the reception.

Traveling Costume
For her going away costume, the bride wore a royal blue crepe dress, trimmed with gold ornaments, a black fleece coat, and a black bonnet.

hat, adorned with black and gold aligator skin and a small veil. Black French kid gloves, a black crepe bag, trimmed in crystal and gold, and black suede shoes with gold buckles were worn with the costume.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home Nov. 10, at Cedarville cottage, Columbus Road, Cedarville, O. The new home is completely furnished and will be ready for occupancy upon the arrival of the bride.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Irwin of Jamestown, O.; Mrs. W. R. McChesney of Cedarville, O.; Mrs. E. F. Kimmel of Des Moines; Miss Bickett and Miss Grace Eliza Bickett of Xenia, O.; Harold Tate of Spring Valley, O.; Mrs. J. Paul Watt and Miss Nelle Watt of Greenfield, O.; and Miss Gladys McCutcheon of Elm Grove, Wheeling, W. Va.

Heads Music Department
The bride, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bickett, is director of the department of music at Cedarville College, Cedarville, O., and plans to continue in this position. Mrs. Creswell is a graduate of Muskingum college, New Concord, the American Conservatory and Miss Grace Eliza Bickett of Xenia, O., where she received her Masters degree.

Mrs. Creswell is a graduate of Cedarville College, Cedarville, O., and the School of Business of the University of Cincinnati. He is connected with the Cummings Chevrolet company in Cedarville.

"Lost Battalion" Member

Addresses D. A. R. Dinner

A graphic description of his experiences as a member of the "lost battalion" in the World War, was given by Mr. Lowell Hollingshead, of Mt. Sterling, O., in an address before members of Cedar Cliff Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Cedarville, and guests at their annual dinner meeting in the Rotary Club rooms, Xenia, Tuesday evening. Recounting his experiences in the form of a story, Mr. Hollingshead, who served overseas from April, 1917, to January, 1919, told how he and 500 American "doughboys" were cut off from the main body of troops. Eight men, including Hollingshead, attempted to get through to the American lines but were unsuccessful. Four of the group being killed and the others wounded and taken prisoners by the Germans.

Mrs. Hollingshead suffered four machine gun bullet wounds in the body but recovered quickly and was used by a German commander to send a message asking surrender of the American troops. The speaker, the battalion refused to surrender and after six days was relieved by American troops who broke through to its assistance.

Mrs. Hollingshead accompanied her husband here and was a guest at the meeting. A three-course dinner was served by Geyer's preceding the program. Mrs. J. Ervin Kyte and her husband and Mrs. Robert Jacobs, accompanied by Miss Juanita Rankin, sang two solos, "The Lotus Flower," by Shumann, and "The False Prophets," by the two fathers, John Paul Wright and John Paul Wright Scott.

Forty-seven members and guests attended the meeting for which members of the chapter's council of safety were hostesses.

The Trout residence property will be offered for sale Saturday at ten o'clock at the court house. A small cottage owned by the estate and located on Chillicothe st., was sold to A. R. McFarland some time ago.

KEEP YOUTHFUL—DRINK MILK
National Milk Week
November 14 to 20
"The cow is a most wonderful laboratory. She takes the grasses of the pasture, and the roughage of the field, and converts them into the most perfect food for man. In that food there is a mysterious something which scientists have found essential to the highest health of the human race, and which can be found nowhere else. Men have sought for centuries the fabled Fountain of Youth. The secret approach to that fountain which has not been discovered is the secret of the cow. Without her milk, children languish, the vigor of the adult declines, and the vitality of the human race runs low."—A tribute by Hon. Frank O. Lowden, Sinsissippi Farm, Illinois.

"Double Wedding" At Regent

Myrna Loy and William Powell in "Double Wedding"

Handsome William Powell certainly sets an awful from love by Myrna Loy in their latest dramatic comedy "Double Wedding" which is scheduled for a week's engagement at the beautiful Regent theatre in Springfield, beginning Friday, November 11.

The hilarious plot of "Double Wedding" concerns Myrna as a prizefighter's wife who sets out to save her pretty little sister from the advances of a charming vagabond, played by Bill Powell, only to fall in love with the rascal herself. Florence Rice and John Deal are also very appearing as the young lovers whose romance Myrna and Powell try to "disturb."

THE TOPIC FOR TODAY IS

NEW CORN

The good days of dollar corn are gone, but with yields per acre twice as great as last year and a good part of the new corn made up of water which will dry out later and not count for corn weight, the present price will bring in as many dollars per acre. Our grain drier has been operating day and night for some two weeks. We are prepared to take in new corn in any quantity.

FLOCK OWNERS—Be careful in feeding new corn to laying flocks whether hen or pullets—it might easily upset them right in the present good egg season—use kiln dried corn either cracked or ground in mash feed and take no chances. WAYNE Supplement and K. D. Corn can't be beat.

Check up on your milk production. Cows coming in from good pasture need WAYNE Dairy Feed to keep up production.
